

Applied Law

Below you will find some information regarding Applied Law. Please note that there are some entry requirements for this course. Please speak to us if you have any queries or questions.

The Applied Law BTEC will take on a more practical approach to studying Law and gain an understanding of the work and skills involved in legal careers, such as Legal Executives and Paralegals.

What is covered?

- Unit 1 – Dispute Solving in Civil Law (External)
- Unit 2 – Investigating Aspects of Criminal Law and the Legal System (Internal)

What does the course involve?

You will cover a range of topics, as outlined above. In addition to the subject content, Applied Law will help you to develop analytical and critical ways of thinking. You will develop your extended writing skills as well as verbal communication skills. These skills are beneficial across a range of subjects.

What next?

Studying BTEC Applied Law will equip you with skills that are highly regarded in the field of Law. Such as research skills, time management skills, the ability to work as a team and to work to independent deadlines.

Find out more We encourage you to contact us with any questions, or alternatively why not follow the link to access Padlet, our bespoke training resource.

The Padlet

Quick course facts

You should have a minimum of five GCSEs graded at level 4 or above, including Mathematics and a level 5 or above in English.

You should also keep up-to-date with worldly developments by taking an interest in the news.

Throughout the course you will develop skills for independent learning, the ability to solve problems and work alongside other professionals.

